The best way to communicate with me is: Jason is easy to talk with & has no physical communication barriers.

Things I like to do: Jason loves most sports & is really exciting he's getting signed up for Special Olympics! He likes recording You Tube videos playing FortNite & riding his bike as well. Jason loves to eat (especially at Golden Corral, McDonald's & China Buffet.

Things I need help with: Jason needs to keep learning "life skills" but is really looking for a mentor-like provider at this time who will be a healthy, positive example of what adulting is all about but who can mix in lots of fun activity. His parents currently prefer the time Jason spends with a provider be out doing things together rather than being at their house due to other children who would interfere with Jason's 1:1 time with the provider.

Any other important information to know: Jason works at Goodwill currently & has a dream of owning his own business someday!
