Projected schedule for services: Matthew needs a provider from March 5-12, 2024. He and his parents would like to meet and spend some time with the provider prior to these dates to help the provider be familiar with the home and needs.

Is this schedule flexible: ☐ Yes ☒ No ☐ Somewhat- explain: Matthew's parents are going on vacation from March 5-12, 2024. He will need a provider specifically for that week. Prior to that week, there is flexibility to arrange time for him to spend with the provider or at a minimum have the provider come to the home to meet his family and him to become familiar with the home.

The family is okay having more than one provider providing the support that is needed.

The best way to communicate with me is: Matthew is verbal and can communicate well. He can advocate for himself and tell others what he does and does not want. He is a great guy with a lot of interests. His parents support him and assist him with coordinating appointments and his schedule.

Things I like to do: Matthew has a lot of interests. He enjoys cooking and baking and likes watching food shows and Youtube videos with food. He enjoys singing, dancing, swimming, drawing, cartooning, and animation. He loves to watch TV; especially Ninjago and Pokémon. He enjoys teen anime and loves watching Youtube videos. Matthew also likes minecraft. Matthew has a strong interest in history, political history, cultural history, and comparative sociology. He likes to read about factual information. Other information is not as interesting to him.

Things I need help with: Matthew appreciates having reminders, and will request assistance when he needs it.

Any other important information to know: Matthew and his parents will assure that the provider has an outline of supports needed.

Matthew's Provider must be medication certified for 1x a day medication administration (no weekend meds).

NEEDS: HPC/TRANSPORTATION/OSOC:

Matthew will need HPC services before and after school, as well as transportation to and from school in Johnstown. He will need help with dinner and then OSOC during the night.
